Agenda Item 4 – Police Chief Introduction

Chair Tapia introduced Chief McCoy to the Commissioners and welcomed him to the meeting. Chief McCoy shared his professional background, highlighting his 27 years in Alaska, and as a Chief Diversity Officer for 1.5 years. Chief McCoy spoke on his work with community policing, and it's efficacy within his community.

Chair Tapia opened the floor to questions for Chief McCoy. Commissioner Chan asked about the crime issues within Tempe compared to other cities. The Chief responded that the reported data may disconnect with the true concerns of the community and emphasized the importance of the role within community policing. Commissioner FurQuann asked about the retention of officers within the City of Tempe, and what was in place to promote officers from within. Chief McCoy responded that most law enforcement agencies are struggling with retention; some may be offering incentives or bonuses which may contribute to attrition within the City of Tempe. Vice-Chair Simmons voiced concerns for the unhoused community within Tempe's parks, and asked about the park ranger programs future involvement with this endeavor. Chief McCoy notified attendees that the park ranger program will live under Community Services, and detailed what their current scope of work will be. Further discussion ensued.

Agenda Item 5 – 2050 Committee Update
