Comic Books to Science Fiction

...and beyond

This exhibition highlights the ongoing influences of comic books, television, movies and science fiction on some of today's leading artists, scientists and academic professionals. Displays include vintage super hero and science fiction memorabilia and ongoing artworks by Chuck Jones, Robert McCall and Roy Lichtenstein and contemporary works by artists Mark Newport and Ryan Huna Smith. The exhibition also features Moon, Mars and beyond images, displays and meteorites from the Arizona State University School of Earth and Space Exploration.

Special thanks to: Chuck Jones Center for Creativity, ASU School of Earth and Space Exploration, ASU Art Museum, Dr. Lawrence and Holley Thompson, Rolf Brown, University of Advancing Technology and artist John Ramirez.
